Personal Profile

I'm an experienced and ambitious web developer looking for a new challenge in the Web Development industry where I can work with cutting-edge technologies on challenging and diverse projects. I've always been driven to do a good job at whatever job I've had.

I am well-versed in Object Oriented Programming and have experience with both the back-end and front-end. Wordpress is my preferred CMS, Laravel is my PHP framework, and Vue JS and React JS are my Javascript frameworks.
